TWEENIES NEWS

Our Tweenies have been taking part in our new healthy walks scheme every Wednesday morning. We feel it is a great way to encourage healthy living and the children love it. Please feel free to take a look at our photo booklets in the Tweenies room.

In November we will be completing lots of creative activities based around bonfire night and are continuing to base our children's learning around each individual's interests. We would love to know what your child's interests are at home, or what they have been up to over the weekend. If you could please bring us in some photographs of your child with their family, we can then display them on our board in Tweenies and this can then be incorporated into your child's learning. We appreciate your help.

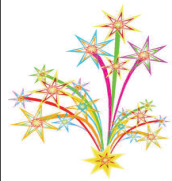

BABY NEWS

Our Babies have been very busy bees in October. We have been doing lots of different activities surrounding Halloween. We made ghosts and pumpkins and had a mini Halloween party, which the little one's loved. We have also celebrated the Hindu festival Diwali. This included making a firework display on the wall and colouring in pictures based on the festival.

We have re-arranged the Sensory corner in babies and are now making full use of that area. Amongst many other things we have enjoyed putting different textures onto the light box and looking at them through the light.

In November we will be celebrating bonfire night by making a glitter wall display as well as taking part in various activities for Children in Need.

EVERY DAD MATTERS

Including men is a national requirement. Key government policies and guidelines specify the inclusion of fathers and male carers. When dad's and male carers are involved in their child's life, great things happen.

- Children become more self confident and understand others better.
 - They do better at school and become more competent.
 - They build better relationships.
 - They have better mental health.
- In adolescence, less criminal behaviour and substance misuse.
